

FALL into National Picture Book Month

November is Picture Book Month. Celebrate by challenging yourself to read some (or ALL!) of the books in the categories below. Track your reading on the back of this paper.

Students that complete the challenge will be invited to a special reading celebration in the Learning Center!

Return your completed challenge to Mrs. Johnson by December 4 to receive your ticket to the celebration!

Nonfiction Picture Book	Wordless Picture Book	Picture Book about Sports
Picture Book about Thanksgiving	Holiday Picture Book	Mystery Picture Book
Picture Book that takes place in another country	Picture Book about Veteran's Day	Picture Book about Math
Picture Book that Rhymes	Picture Book about Family	Picture Book that takes place in the fall
Picture Book Biography	Award Winner	Picture Book that takes place long ago

*Reading may be done at home and during choice time, library visits, reading buddies or indoor recess.

Picture Book Challenge 2019

Name _____ Teacher _____

Challenge	Book Title
Nonfiction Picture Book
Picture Book about Thanksgiving
Picture Book that takes place in another country
Picture Book that Rhymes
Picture Book Biography
Wordless Picture Book
Holiday Picture Book
Picture Book about Veteran's Day
Picture Book about Family
Award Winner
Picture Book about Sports
Mystery Picture Book
Picture Book about Math
Picture Book that takes place in the fall
Picture Book that takes place long ago

Return your completed challenge to
Mrs. Johnson by December 4!

